Field of Idaho Alfalfa

Alfalfa

COSSACK ALFALFA

Cossack is one of the hardiest and best drouth and frost resisting alfalfas.

This alfalfa was brought to this country from Siberia by Prof. Niels E. Hansen, an American agricultural explorer. A small quantity of this seed was first planted in the high, dry regions of western South Dakota, where other strains of alfalfa had failed completely. The Cossack made a wonderful showing.

Cossack has a double root system, the branch root as well as the deep tap root, making it both a frost and drouth resister. The crowns are very large and set low in the ground, throwing out from 150 to 300 shoots. It is a heavy producer of good quality hay of fine stems and many leaves.

State Certified Blue Tag Cossack Alfalfa. Write for prices.

Uncertified Cossack Alfalfas. Write for prices and samples.

GRIMM ALFALFA

This strain is distinguished from common alfalfa by its branching root system and is particularly adapted to sections where the soil has a tendency to freeze and heave. On such soils the branching roots hold to the ground better than the common alfalfa, which has a deep tap root. Grimm alfalfa has a larger crown, producing more shoots than common, which makes it a better quality of hay.

State Certified Blue Tag Grimm Alfalfa. Write for prices.

Uncertified Grimm Alfalfa. Write for prices and samples.

COMMON ALFALFA

Common Alfalfa needs no introduction. The seed of this section is produced at a high elevation and is as hardy as can be obtained from any source. It will show the best results wherever sown.

Clovers

This crop is grown here chiefly for the seed, although it makes a wonderful hay crop. Clover is growing in popularity as a hay and pasture crop in some of our mountain valleys and on higher elevations. Clover is a natural cool weather crop and will often thrive in cool sections where it is too cold for alfalfa to do its best. The clovers are also very valuable to mix with other grasses, for both hay and pasture.

MEDIUM RED OR JUNE CLOVER

This is the standard strain of clover grown in all sections for hay and pasture purposes, and the one grown for commercial seed purposes. We always carry a special high quality, high purity strain of Red Clover seed to sow for seed production. We can also supply you with good quality grades for hay purposes, showing slight mixtures of other clovers or alfalfa, at lower prices.

Field of Medjum Red or June Clover

ALSIKE OR SWEDISH CLOVER

This is one of the hardiest varieties known. It does not winter kill. It will do better in moist land than any other variety of clover and is suitable for either hay or pasture. When sown with other grasses it forms a thick undergrowth and greatly increases the yield.

Fancy Alsike Clover. Write for prices.

WHITE DUTCH CLOVER

A low growing, close growing strain of clover used extensively for seeding lawns and to some extent for pasture purposes in mixtures.

Fancy White Dutch Clover, 1 lb., 65c; 5 lbs., $3.10; 10 lbs., $6.00, F. O. B. Twin Falls. For larger quantities, write for prices.

Other grades of White Dutch Clover and mixtures, write for prices.

SWEET CLOVER

A wonderful pasture and fertilizer plant. It makes a good, quick pasture that will carry the maximum number of animals. If sown straight without a nurse crop and irrigated freely it is ready to pasture in 8 to 10 weeks time and will last two seasons. Sweet Clover is a great drouth resister and can be grown to advantage on dry lands if you have sufficient moisture to germinate and start it. In dry land Sweet Clover should be sown in very early spring or late fall. On irrigated lands it can be sown most any time during spring or summer. Sow 15 to 20 pounds per acre for pasture purposes. Grows well on all soils.

WHITE BLOSSOM SWEET CLOVER

A hardy biennial plant growing to a height of from 5 to 6 feet. Starts early in the spring and grows rapidly throughout the season. The heaviest producing strain of sweet clover and the best to sow for fertilizing purposes.

Fancy White Blossom Sweet Clover. Write for prices and samples.

YELLOW BLOSSOM SWEET CLOVER

Similar to the white blossom strain except in color of bloom, but does not grow so tall and stems and leaves are finer. A wonderful pasture plant; all animals eat it freely and thrive on it. A biennial like the white, it lasts two seasons.

Fancy Yellow Blossom Sweet Clover. Write for prices and samples.

Pasture Grasses

KENTUCKY BLUE GRASS

Kentucky Blue Grass

One of the best pasture grasses. Is adapted to a wide range of soils and conditions. One of the earliest to start in the spring, and grows well late in the fall. Kentucky Blue Grass should be in every permanent mixture. Used extensively as a lawn grass due to its close growing habits and fine color.

Fancy Kentucky Blue Grass, 1 lb., 30c; 5 lbs., $1.35; 10 lbs., $2.50, F. O. B. Twin Falls. For larger quantities, write for prices.

MEADOW FESCUE

Sometimes called English Blue Grass, is one of our best and most valuable pasture and hay grasses. It grows 2 feet to 30 inches tall, is very leafy, grows close and stands pasturing well. We recommend this grass in all pasture formulas.

Write for prices.

OREGON RYE GRASS

This is a mixture of Perennial Rye Grass, described below, and Italian Rye Grass, which is of a very similar nature. A good grass to sow, either straight, for permanent pasture, or in combination with other grasses.

Write for prices.

TIMOTHY

Needs no introduction, as it has been grown in the west and all other sections as a hay and pasture grass. Not a drouth resister, but good on low, moist soils. Good to sow with clover and alfalfa.

Write for prices.

BROMUS INERMUS

Brome Grass

A very hardy drouth resisting grass. Yields heavy crops and makes abundance of pasture. We particularly recommend Brome Grass to be sown on high dry lands. It will withstand drouth better than any grass we know of. Sow 15 to 20 pounds per acre broadcast. Can be sown at any time of year, but perhaps the best time is in early spring.

Write for prices.

ORCHARD GRASS

A valuable grass for pasture or hay, fine for mixing with alfalfa, making high quality mixed hay. On account of its earliness it is very valuable as a permanent pasture. When closely cropped it grows up again very quickly. Withstands drouth and is very hardy. This is a particularly valuable grass for the west and we recommend it in every pasture mixture. Sow not less than 20 lbs. to the acre.

Write for prices.

ENGLISH OR PERENNIAL RYE GRASS

This is one of the very finest pasture grasses. Used very extensively in the British Isles. The name 'Rye' would indicate a tall, coarse grass, but the contrary is true. Perennial Rye is a low, close growing grass of very fine quality. The name comes from a resemblance of the seed head to that of Rye. We recommend Perennial Rye Grass in all formulas for irrigated lands. This is not a hay grass, but a heavy producing pasture grass. Write for prices.

RED TOP

A valuable grass for moist, rich soils where it thrives to best advantage. It should be fed close; if allowed to grow up to seed cattle dislike it. On good soil grows about two feet tall. A good grass to sow in connection with other grasses. If land is low and moist, try Red Top. Sow about 10 pounds per acre of hulled seeds. We strongly recommend a mixture of Red Top and Alsike Clover for water-logged lands or low places.

Write for prices.

CRESTED WHEAT GRASS

This hardy, perennial, drouth resisting grass has made a very remarkable showing, where many other varieties have failed under dry, arid conditions.

It withstands drouth and the cold winters and is the first to become green in the spring and the last to dry out in the fall. It is one of the best grasses for pasture or hay in the semi-arid sections. Sow 10 pounds per acre for pasture or hay.

Write for prices.

Pasture Mixtures for Irrigated Lands

We do not offer prepared mixtures for pastures, preferring to let our customers buy the grasses separately and do their own mixing. In this way the customer knows what he is buying and sowing.

We recommend the following as the mixture best adapted to irrigated lands:

Orchard Grass

2 pounds Kentucky Blue Grass
6 pounds Meadow Fescue
6 pounds Orchard Grass
6 pounds Oregon Rye Grass
5 pounds Sweet Clover, white or yellow

25 pounds per acre.

Write for prices.

TEMPORARY PASTURE MIXTURE

For a quick and temporary pasture mixture sow:

15 pounds Sweet Clover, white or yellow
10 pounds Oregon Rye Grass

25 pounds to the acre.

If sown in early spring, without nurse crop and watered freely, this formula should make a heavy pasture in 8 to 10 weeks.

Write for prices.

SHORT MOISTURE PASTURE FORMULA

In locations where rainfall or sub-moisture is depended on, it is important to use the right kind of grasses best adapted to such locations that will produce pasture and hay profitably. We recommend strongly the following mixtures for such locations:

5 lbs. Crested Wheat Grass
5 lbs. Brome Grass
2 lbs. Kentucky Blue Grass
5 lbs. Sweet Clover, white or yellow

Sow 17 pounds per acre as above. This mixture can be sown on the snow in early spring or in the fall just before the rainy season sets in.

Sowing Instructions for Grasses and Clovers

PASTURE GRASSES ON IRRIGATED LANDS

Sow all pasture grasses straight, not with grain nurse crop; grain smothers the delicate young grass plants, making thin pasture or failure to get a stand at all.

Always sow on a well-settled seed bed. If land has been recently plowed it should be worked down firm before sowing. Grass seed will never catch well on a loose, ashy seed bed. Old clover, alfalfa, beet or bean fields make good seed beds for pasture grasses. Do not plow or disk such land; smooth it out with a spike-tooth harrow and firm it with a good packing tool then sow your seed.

Sow all grass seeds shallow. This is natural for grasses; just broadcast seed on top of ground and harrow or brush in lightly. Grass seed will not germinate if sown too deep.

Soon as grass is sown, corrugate and irrigate thoroughly; then in four to six days irrigate lightly and continue with light waterings every four to six days for the first four weeks, after which a good irrigation every ten days or two weeks apart should be sufficient. Grass and clover seeds require plenty of moisture when first sown to insure a good stand.

Do not turn stock on pasture when grass is first starting. If turned on when grass is young, animals will pull it up, roots and all, ruining the stand. A new pasture should not be turned onto until roots are thoroughly set. It takes about 90 days after grass starts to grow for the roots to become thoroughly set.

Wheat

DICKLOW WHEAT

The Most Popular Wheat in Idaho

That Dicklow is a wonderful variety of wheat is beyond question. Its yielding qualities are wonderful; we doubt whether there is a heavier yielding wheat than Dicklow in existence. In quality Dicklow is a very soft wheat and it will not grade as high as many other kinds, but it makes up for this in yielding qualities. Dicklow has immense square heads always well-filled with large plump berries. When allowed to stand after ripe this variety is inclined to shatter quite badly and is therefore not a good dry land wheat.

We have a very fine quality of re-cleaned Dicklow this season.

NITRAGIN — Oldest and Most Widely Used Inoculator in America

Spring class, berries resembling the Dicklow. This wheat is distinguished by a stiff, short straw with very scant foliage that is practically proof against lodging, making it an excellent nurse crop. Federation is proving itself a remarkable yielder, seems to equal the popular Dicklow strain in that respect.

Oats

SWEDISH SELECT

This popular old strain of oats has been grown in this section many years. It remains one of our most popular varieties and we doubt whether a better strain has ever been developed. Swedish Select was originally imported from Sweden.

It is medium early; straw of medium height, very stiff and stands up well; seldom lodges. The grain is rather short but plump; the hull is very thin, consequently it will weigh heavy. The heads are large and under all conditions Swedish Select

A field of our Swedish Select Seed Oats, which yielded 125 bushel per acre will yield as heavily on the average as any variety known.

Uncertified, Swedish Select, write for prices.

WHITE CROSS OATS

Very Early

The White Cross is an extra early variety, developed by the Wisconsin Experiment Station.

The grain is white, medium sized, thin hulled, plump and heavy. The straw is of medium height, has large heads and is a very heavy yielder.

The White Cross is a very early oat and is an extra good oat to sow with barley for a mixed grain and a good strain for the high elevations in the west.

State Certified, White Cross, write for prices.
Uncertified, White Cross, write for prices.

Barley

WHITE HULLESS OR BALD BARLEY

A very early, high quality feed grain, weighing 70 pounds per bushel. Owing to the fact that it grows without beards makes it a splendid grain for hogging down. Being very early makes it a good crop for short moisture and short season localities, also does especially good under irrigation. This barley matures 10 days to 2 weeks earlier than ordinary barley. Sow at the rate of 120 pounds per acre on irrigated lands, lighter on dry lands.

Write for prices and samples.

TREBI BARLEY

The best of all bearded barleys, heaviest producer, thinnest hulled strain known. We think that there is no strain of bearded barley equal to Trebi and strongly recommend it to our customers.

State Certified, Trebi Barley, write for prices.
Uncertified, Trebi Barley, write for prices.

Rye

SPRING RYE

Spring Rye makes an excellent crop to sow for quick pasture. We strongly recommend it for that purpose. It is a good yielder and the grain makes a good stock feed. On dry farms, where it is necessary to sow annual pasture, this grain is very valuable. Sow 80 to 90 pounds per acre as early in the spring as weather will permit.

Write for prices.

FALL RYE

If you need quick pasture Fall Rye has great advantages. If sown in early spring it will soon give an abundance of quality feed. For pasture purposes the Fall Rye is superior; as it stools heavily without shooting seed stalks; will furnish good pasture clear through the growing season. For pasture purposes sow 100 pounds per acre.

Write for prices and samples.

Field Peas

CANADIAN FIELD PEAS

Peas can be sown either straight or in combination with other grains, like wheat, hulless barley, etc., but be sure to use more peas than other grains in sowing. If the grain predominates it will reduce the yield of peas. The vines make excellent hay or roughage and the hay yield is heavy. This crop should be sown as early as the ground is ready.

Sow at the rate of 120 pounds per acre straight, if with grain use at least 80 pounds peas per acre with 40 or 50 pounds grain.

Write for prices.

Corn

IDAHO GOLDEN DENT

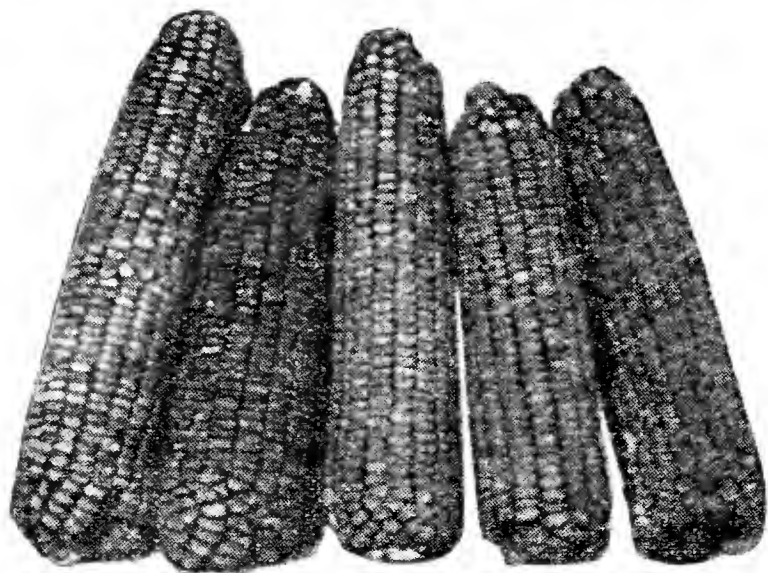

This strain is very popular in this section. Was developed from Wisconsin Golden Glow. It is thoroughly acclimated to our conditions. Is a 90 day strain, with ears from 9 to 10 inches long, well filled out over the tip, running very even and uniform. Color bright golden yellow, red cob, deep kernels. Stalks grow tall and leafy. Golden Dent makes a good, rich silage corn when planted for that purpose. Will yield with any of the yellow dent strains and matures ahead of most of them.

5 lbs., 50c; 10 lbs., 75c, F. O. B. Twin Falls. For larger quantities, write for prices.

IDAHO SILVER DENT

Idaho Silver Dent is thoroughly acclimated to Idaho conditions and safe to plant in most of the state except in the very high altitudes. About 10 days earlier than most of the yellow dent corns.

Description: A white dent with ears about 8 to 10 inches long, deep kernels set evenly on the cob and well filled out over the tips of ears. Stalks are rather short; will not produce as much fodder as some of the yellow corns, but will out-yield most of them in grain.

Idaho Golden Dent Corn

5 lbs., 50c; 10 lbs., 75c, F. O. B. Twin Falls. For larger quantities, write for prices.

CASSIA COUNTY FLINT

This is a large-eared strain of the Australian White Flint variety that has been grown in this section for a considerable number of years, becoming perfectly acclimated. A very heavy yielder, very early and hardy, it never fails to mature. There are very few localities in Idaho where Cassia County Flint will not mature and make a big crop of corn. If you want a safe corn in most any locality, plant this variety. Requires 8 to 10 pounds per acre.

5 lbs., 50c; 10 lbs., 75c; F. O. B. Twin Falls. For larger quantities, write for prices.

Vetch

The Vetches belong to the pea family; are very hardy, will grow on all kinds of soils and flourish under almost any conditions. They will do well in our coldest sections and will make a wonderful crop for our high mountain valleys. Vetch will stand a lot of drouth.

SAND OR WINTER VETCH

This variety thrives on poor, arid and sandy soil. It is sown in the fall or early spring and is generally mixed with grain to support it and keep it off the ground. Grows to a height of four or five feet and can be cut twice; first, for hay as soon as the blossom appears, and later on for seed, or it can be pastured up to about June and let it go for seed. Perfectly hardy and makes a fine hay and pasture. One of the very best fertilizers. Sow broadcast 25 to 30 pounds per acre as early as possible and about three inches deep.

Write for prices.

SPRING VETCH

Very valuable quick pasture or for a first year hay crop. This is a species of pea and is grown very extensively on the Pacific Coast. It furnishes an abundance of excellent feed, either green or cut and dried for hay. The seed should be sown mixed with some variety of grain in order to hold up the crop. Sow about 60 to 80 pounds per acre with a half bushel of grain. Vetch is a wonderful fertilizer. In some cases the soil requires inoculation to produce the best results. Sow as early in the spring as possible.

Write for prices.

Rape

Rape is excellent for sheep pasture and also for soiling. It may be sown in May and be ready for pasturing in July or August, or it may be sown in June and July and yet furnish a large amount of pasture or fodder. In drill sow five pounds per acre; broadcast, 10 pounds per acre. Sow Rape in your corn fields when you lay the crop by, it will make an abundance of fall feed.

1 lb. 20c; 10 lbs., $1.65; F. O. B. Twin Falls. For larger quantities, write for prices.

Millet

GOLDEN MILLET

An annual quick hay or forage crop of great value where hay or feed is needed the first season from sowing. In this section it will yield four to five tons of the very finest hay per acre. Can be sown as late as July or the fore part of August and will mature a crop of hay or seed in 60 to 70 days from sowing. Used very extensively in most parts of the country as a catch crop where other crops have failed. Sow 30 pounds of seed per acre broadcast.

5 lbs., 75c; 10 lbs., $1.25; F. O. B. Twin Falls. For larger quantities, write for prices.

HOG OR BROOM CORN MILLET

This crop will mature in about 70 days from sowing and will give you a grain of very high feeding value. Broom Corn Millet is a wonderful crop for our short season sections and furnishes a fine grain feed for livestock. Particularly valuable for finishing hogs and for poultry, or if ground fine, makes good dairy feed.

Broom Corn Millet is sown and handled just like any other grain crop. Sow 50 pounds per acre any time after danger of frost is past, up to August 1st.

5 lbs., 60c; 10 lbs., $1.00; F. O. B. Twin Falls. For larger quantities, write for prices.

Kaffir Corn

Similar to Feterita and used for the same purpose. Some prefer the Kaffir Corn, claiming it has a higher feeding value. Like Feterita, Kaffir Corn will make good with very little moisture.

1 lb. 20c; 5 lbs., 60c; 10 lbs., $1.00; F. O. B. Twin Falls. For larger quantities, write for prices.

Sugar Cane or Sorghum

For hay sow broadcast at the rate of 120 pounds per acre in order to keep the hay fine and not too coarse to handle. Sow any time after danger of frost is past, up to July 1. In drill rows sow from three to five pounds per acre.

1 lb., 20c; 5 lbs., 55c; 10 lbs., 90c; F. O. B. Twin Falls. For larger quantities, write for prices.

Sudan Grass

Sudan Grass is a natural drouth resisting plant. It will make a good crop with very little moisture and should be extensively used in our short water districts. Under irrigation Sudan flourishes and makes a still heavier crop. All animals like Sudan hay or pasture.

Sow broadcast, same as grain, at the rate of 40 to 50 pounds per acre.

5 lbs., 60c; 10 lbs., $1.00; F. O. B. Twin Falls. For larger quantities, write for prices.

Flax

Sow any time from March up to July 1, same as other grains, using at least 50 pounds of seed per acre on good land.

1 lb. 20c; 5 lbs. 75c; 10 lbs. $1.20; F. O. B. Twin Falls. For larger quantities, write for prices.

Sunflower

Early Russian

Sunflower is being used quite extensively for silage purposes in many parts of the west. The feeding value of this silage is high. When cut at the time the seed is in the dough it is said to possess a feeding value practically as high as corn. Also the grain is excellent for poultry feed when ripened. For silage plant at rate of about 10 pounds per acre; for seed crop about 6 pounds per acre.

1 lb. 20c; 5 lbs. 80c; 10 lbs. $1.40; F. O. B. Twin Falls. For larger quantities, write for prices.

Garden Seeds

Our garden seeds are all obtained from reliable sources and carefully selected to give the best results in our inter-mountain section.

As western seedsmen we know best what is adapted to western conditions and our seeds are the very best market gardener's strain that we can obtain.

Asparagus Seed

When an Asparagus bed is started from seed the seed should be sown in the open ground in early spring and plants transplanted to the permanent bed when one year old. One ounce of seed will sow 50 feet of row. Asparagus grows to perfection in Idaho.

MARY WASHINGTON

A rust resistant strain developed by the experts of the United States Department of Agriculture. Is a heavy producer of large, rich green colored stalks, with a trifle purple tint at the tips. Of excellent quality and very early.

Packet, 5c; oz., 15c; $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., 30c; 1 lb., \$1.00. Postage Paid.

ASPARAGUS ROOTS

By far the most satisfactory way to obtain an Asparagus bed is to set out the roots. It takes three years to secure a good producing bed from seed, but with good healthy roots, such as we have, a bearing bed can be had in from one to two years.

Write for prices.

Garden Beans

Culture: About May first, or as soon as danger of frost is past and ground is warm. Plant in drills 18 inches to two feet apart and cover lightly. Cultivate well to keep down weeds. Sow about every two weeks during the spring for succession.
